This manual has been carefully structured to assist both current and former Beatrice employees for the proper contact information of your retirement benefits.

This manual has sections pertaining to the following:

- Retirement benefit contacts
- Life insurance contacts
- Beatrice Foods Co./Beatrice Companies, Inc./Esmark, Inc./BCI Holdings Corp. stock contact
- Beatrice Foods Co./Beatrice Companies, Inc. subsidiary contact
- Beatrice Foods Co. Retirement Income Plan (Group Annuity Contract No. 76)

This manual goes under periodic changes to keep all information current. February 2019 has included information for Beatrice Home Products (Beatrice Plumbing Group).

We have attempted thorough and diligent research to include all of the Beatrice retirement benefit contact information at our disposal, but since owing to the fact that many of the subsidiary businesses listed in this manual were sold or divested by Beatrice many years ago, it has become difficult to coordinate which of the former Beatrice operations are responsible for your retirement benefits. This manual should be used as a guide in assisting you in who to contact.

Carefully look through this manual to figure on who you should contact for your benefits, and if any information found in this manual is no longer relevant, or there has been updated information, please let us know so we can correct our records.

If you still need assistance, and are unable to get resolution from any contacts listed in this manual, please contact us directly, and we will do our best to help.

Sincerely,

HR Operations
Beatrice Services, Inc.

Beatrice Foods Co. Retirement Income Plan (BRIP) (Plan Number: 36-0783330-001)

Note: The Beatrice Retirement Income Plan (May 1st 1941 to June 30th 1989) [John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company Annuity Contract No. 76]. Assets were held by two financial institutions. A trust fund under a trust agreement with The First National Bank of Chicago (now Chase Bank), and John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company. After June 30th 1989, Annuity Contract No. 76 was discontinued, and any remaining participants on that plan were continued to be covered by John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company. If you were vested in the plan prior to June 30th 1989, and did not retain any documentation on your benefits, please contact Beatrice Services, Inc. HR Operations. In certain instances, as for example with Beatrice Dairy Products, Inc. employees, the portion of BRIP was transferred to Borden, Inc. Retirement Income Plan, and the same may pertain to your particular former Beatrice division. If you are not sure you were a participant of this plan, contact Beatrice for assistance.

Beatrice Company Retirement Benefit Information (Plan Number: 47-0737263-001)

If you were employed by any of the previous Beatrice owned companies, we have compiled a list of current contact information to help assist you in locating your pension benefits. We strive to keep this information as accurate as possible.

If you worked for Beatrice Company, (La Choy, Rosarita, Swiss Miss, Hunt's, Wesson, Gebhardt, Reddi-Whip, Hunt-Wesson Foods, or Esmark, Inc.) prior to August 1990, you would need to contact ConAgra Retirement Services. ConAgra, Inc. acquired the legal entity called Beatrice Company in 1990, which is not the same entity as Beatrice Foods Co. or Beatrice Companies, Inc. Beatrice Company, which came into being in September 1987, and comprised Beatrice/Hunt-Wesson, Inc., Beatrice Cheese, Inc., and Swift-Eckrich, Inc. There are also instances where your retirement plan from another Beatrice subsidiary that was sold prior to ConAgra taking ownership may still be administered by ConAgra. Contact the current owner of the former Beatrice subsidiary and see if you are in their retirement account system.

The following will help with inquiries regarding policies originally issued by The Mutual Life Insurance Company (“Mutual Benefit”)

Mutual Benefit was placed in rehabilitation under the supervision of the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance on July 16, 1991. Mutual Benefits in-force policies were transferred to MBL Life Assurance Corporation (“MBL Life”), effective May 1, 1994. Mutual Benefit was ultimately liquidated and dissolved, effective June 14, 2001.

Subsequent to 1994, all former Mutual Benefit policies were administered by MBL Life pursuant to a Plan of Rehabilitation approved by the Superior Court of New Jersey (the “Court”). In 1998, MBL Life entered in to various transactions under which policy liabilities were transferred to other insurers. Each transaction was duly approved by the Court and filed with governing State Insurance Departments. Ultimately, an Order For Liquidation of MBL Life was entered, effective January, 2000. An Order For Dissolution was ordered by the court on October 22, 2004.

If the policy referenced in the inquiry was in force at the time of the applicable 1998 transaction, it was automatically transferred to one of the following insurers (depending on the type of policy):

Individual Life Insurance Contracts:

AIG SunAmerica Life Assurance Company (formerly, Anchor National Life Insurance Company) (Non-New York State Policyholders)
First SunAmerica Life Insurance Company (New York State Policyholders)
c/o Liberty Insurance Services

(800) 821-7887

Individual Annuity Contracts:

AIG SunAmerica Life Assurance Company (formerly, Anchor National Life Insurance Company) (Non-New York State Policyholders)
First SunAmerica Life Insurance Company (New York State Policyholders)
c/o AIG Annuity

(888) 333-2349

Group Annuity (Pension) Contracts:

c/o SunAmerica Financial Services

(888) 502-0600

Disability Insurance Contracts:

AIG SunAmerica Life Assurance Company (formerly, Anchor National Life Insurance Company) (Non-New York State Policyholders)
First SunAmerica Life Insurance Company (New York State Policyholders)
c/o Insurance Servicing Center

(800) 743-0122

Please contact the applicable insurer for a response to the inquiry. (With regard to Group Annuity Contracts, participants inquiring about contracts issued under a pension plan may also seek additional information from either the Company personnel department or the Plan Administrator).

If the policy or contract was not in force on the date of the applicable transaction, either (i) it had lapsed, (ii) it was surrendered for value, (iii) the proceeds had been previously distributed pursuant to the terms of the policy or (iv) the proceeds had been transferred to another insurer and the election of the contract holder. If any of these events occurred, the policy has terminated and there are no available records which will provide additional information.

Beatrice Home Products (Dearbor Brass, Chicago Specialty, Wrightway Manufacturing, Anchor Brass, and Hoov-R-Line)

Known as the Plumbing Group, and having been part of E-II Holdings in 1987, American Brands acquired E-II, and renamed the Plumbing Group as Master Brand. In turn, the company was later renamed 21st Century Companies, Inc. In 1990, American Brands (currently known as Fortune Brands) purchase Moen, Inc. With the acquisition of Moen, American Brands formed the new Moen, which included Moen and all of the 21st Century business units. Those that were employed while Beatrice owned this business unit would need to contact ConAgra Retirement Services. After 1987, you would need to contact Fortune Brands Home & Security, Inc.
